

Michelle Carter - Childminder

Back to results

Having been a full time working Mum, Michelle appreciates any concern you may have about leaving your child and she operates an open door policy where you can contact her anytime to check the progress and well being of your child. Michelle offers a home from home warm, friendly and stimulating environment with the emphasis on fun learning through play. All the children are treated equally and as individuals just like her own two children. Michelle has recently attended courses on Positive Behaviour Management / Supporting a child with Autism / Supporting a child with Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) Inclusion - a training course on including disabled children and young people in play. She has also attended Child Development 0-3 years and many other Early Years Foundation stage courses. Michelle has a large play area both indoors and out. She also enjoys regular walks to the local parks, libraries & also attends play groups and does various visits to soft play groups such as Jungle Mania , Cheeky Charlies and outings to local farms. Michelle offers 2, 3 and 4 year funded places. Vacancies available from Sept 2015
