At Henley Nannies we specialise in making successful placements of high quality household staff.

We cover the complete range of positions from Nannies, Mothers Helps, Maternity Nurses & Night Nannies, Housekeepers, Domestic Couples, Estate Managers, Private Chefs to Chauffeurs. Our service includes permanent & temporary staff as well as emergency and school holiday cover. We do our utmost to make the best possible matches for clients and candidates.

Established in 1988, we have a proven track record of providing first class guidance. We listen to both clients and applicant's needs and only suggest a meeting when we believe that there is strong compatibility.

Working with us is a partnership and we offer advice and support for both parties from the moment they register, through to the interview process and contract negotiations.

We believe our personal approach and experience, puts us in the best position to help make long and happy appointments.
